The staff and administration of Tri-County School believe that students should be given every opportunity to make informed choices about their future. Visiting prospective colleges when they are in session is an important step to making a wise college choice. Tri-County seniors may have the privilege of visiting post-secondary schools, even though this occasionally means missing high school classes. The following contract was designed for the benefit of seniors, their parents, counselors, teachers, and college representatives. (over)

COLLEGE VISIT CONTRACT
