Good evening,

This instant alert is an addition to the one sent this morning and concerns material returns.

After speaking with families, we have decided to add an additional day for material returns: Tuesday, May 26 will also be a day to return any borrowed materials for all students K-12. This includes the return of textbooks, ipads, chromebooks, library books, calculators, etc. Materials can be returned at the South Entrance #14 from 7:30-5:30. Today and tomorrow will remain as days families may return materials. Our plan to pick up materials tomorrow for those people outside of the City Limits of Karlstad remains in effect.

Please contact the school if you need to make arrangements to return items at a different time.

Thank you for your feedback and understanding.
